

Coroners' Inquests.

WOMAN VICTIM ASSESSED.—Coroner Naumann held an inquest yesterday on the body of Faustine Kasten, a native of Germany, twenty-two years of age, who died on Saturday from the effects of a dose of arsenic which she took for the purpose of killing herself. The deceased was a widow of refined and lady-like manners, and had received a good education. She came to this country about six months ago in anticipation of living easily and pleasantly with her friends. Finding they were not in circumstances to support her, she was obliged to go abroad again, and about three weeks ago took a dose of bromide, but remedies were promptly applied and her life was saved for a time. She continued in a very low and disconsolate state, and on Saturday succeeded in destroying herself. A verdict in accordance with the above facts will be rendered.

KILLED BY FALLING THROUGHS A TEAR DOOR.—Nicholas George, a native of Germany, twenty-two years of age, a butcher by trade, died at his residence, No. 14 Second Avenue, on Saturday morning, after having received a fall through a trap door in the premises 221 West Fourth street. He fell a distance of about fifteen feet, severely fracturing his skull, and was dead for a time. She continued in a very low and disconsolate state, and on Saturday succeeded in destroying herself. A verdict in accordance with the above facts will be rendered.

KILLED BY FALLING ENGINE.—Coroner Wiley held an inquest yesterday on the body of Arthur Wilder, a native of Ireland, seventeen years of age, who was accidentally killed on Saturday night last. The deceased was run over by engine No. 4, in Sixth avenue, while running to a fire in Thirteenth street. He was taken up, but died before reaching St. Vincent's Hospital. The remains were taken to his late residence, where the inquest was held, a verdict of "accidental death" being rendered.

FATAL FAULT.—Coroner Coll held an inquest on Sunday on the body of Edward McCabe, who died from a fracture of the skull, received by falling down the stairs of his residence, No. 21 Mulberry street.

An inquest was held on Sunday on the same coroner on the body of Margaret Livingston, whose death was also caused by a fracture of the skull, received by falling into the cellar at 220 Mulberry street. The deceased was very short sighted, and it is supposed that she missed her landing.
